Seaboard Surgical Welcomes Daniel Richardson, M.D.

(Washington, N.C.) – The physicians and staff of Seaboard Surgical are pleased to welcome Dr. Dan Richardson to the practice. Dr. Richardson joins local surgeons Barr Coleman, M.D., Bill Tipton, M.D. and Michael Egbert, M.D.

Dr. Richardson is board-certified in general surgery with over 10 years of experience. He received his medical degree from Emory University School of Medicine in Atlanta in 1990. He also completed his general surgery residency at Emory University. He has spent the past 12 years practicing medicine in the western part of North Carolina. From 1996 to 2005, Dr. Richardson was at Highlands-Cashiers Hospital and most recently was Chief of Surgery at Angel Medical Center in Franklin. He is a Fellow in the American College of Surgeons.

Dr. Richardson has over 10 years experience in performing minimally invasive breast biopsies. He has brought new technology to the practice and to Beaufort County Medical Center. Dr. Richardson performs ultrasound guided breast biopsies, which helps provide quicker results and less discomfort and cost for the patient. He is a member of the American Society of Breast Surgeons.

Our surgeons at Seaboard Surgical provide a wide-range of inpatient and outpatient surgical procedures in the new, modernized surgical suite at Beaufort County Medical Center. They are skilled at performing surgical procedures in a minimally invasive fashion such as laparoscopic surgery for gallbladder and appendix and ventral hernia repair. Our surgeons specialize in the diagnosis and treatment of conditions that require surgery in the following areas: digestive, abdomen, breast, endocrine, skin, cancer and critical care.

Seaboard Surgical is located at 615 E. 12th Street in Washington and can be reached by calling 946-0181. Seaboard Surgical is accepting new patients.
